

How affordable are child care services in Toronto, and what difference does affordability make? ^[1]

25 Nov 2016 - 1:00pm to 2:30pm

Region: Ontario ^[2]

Details

How affordable are child care services in Toronto, and what difference does affordability make?

A new study finds that licensed child care is affordable for only 25% of families in Toronto. Access to licensed child care is very sensitive to affordability, and so is parental employment many families would prefer licensed care, but cannot currently afford it. Dr. Gordon Cleveland, Associate Professor Emeritus, Department of Management, University of Toronto Scarborough presents the findings.

No registration required.

Date & Time: November 25, 2016, 1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Location: OISE, 252 Bloor Street West, 12th Floor, Nexus Lounge, Toronto, Ontario

Tags: affordability ^[3]
fees ^[4]

Source URL (modified on 7 Aug 2020): <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/16/11/how-affordable-are-child-care-services-toronto-and-what-difference-does>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/16/11/how-affordable-are-child-care-services-toronto-and-what-difference-does> [2] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/affordability> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/fees>