

Ontario votes 2018: Where the parties stand on child care <sup>[1]</sup>

Author: AECEO

Source: Association of Early Childhood Educators Ontario

Format: Article

Publication Date: 24 May 2018

AVAILABILITY

Read/listen online <sup>[2]</sup>

EXCERPTS

Child Care is a key election issues for voters. Find out where the parties stand on child care and make an informed decision when you head to the polls on June 7th!

The AECEO outline how the Green Party of Ontario, New Democratic Party of Ontario, Ontario Liberal Party, and Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario stand on the different aspects of child care.

Specifically, they address: develop a universally accessible system of high quality child care, spending, low fees or no fees for every family - addres affordability by providing funds to child care programs instread of individuals, decent work & professional pay for registered early childhood educators (RECE), limit expansion to public & non-profit child care programs, commitement to work with First Nation, Metis, Inuit and urban Indigenous peoples to strengthen and expand child care, commitement to improve and expand access to child care for children with special needs, commitement to review and improve full day kindergarten.

Read more <sup>[2]</sup>

Related link:

Region: Ontario <sup>[3]</sup>

---

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/18/05/ontario-votes-2018-where-parties-stand-child-care>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/18/05/ontario-votes-2018-where-parties-stand-child-care> [2] <https://www.aecce.ca/> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856>