44th General Election Leaders' Debates

Dates: September 8 at 8 p.m. EDT (French) and September 9 at 9 p.m. EDT (English)

Location: Canadian Museum of History in Gatineau, Québec

We are an independent and impartial public body mandated to organize two leaders' debates for the next federal general election, one in each official language, while paying special attention to Canada's Indigenous languages.

Our role is to engage a debates producer, set participation criteria, determine which political leaders are invited to participate in the leaders' debates, and work with the debates producer to develop a format that reflects the public interest, while respecting journalistic independence.

The Commission's objective is to make debates a more predictable, reliable and stable element of federal election campaigns.
