This episode is all about new beginnings and imagining futures in early learning and care. We start from a place of self reflection and think about what we've tried and learned over the past year and in a pandemic. We get the chance to talk with Sophia Mohamed about childcare and the federal election #elxn44. We make a first attempt at the 'Kid News'. And we start to re-imagine community and what we need, want and wish for in the world of early childhood. It's just a beginning ...
