

New Minister in charge of child care plan ^[1]

Author: Bresnahan, Robyn

Source: CBC Radio

Publication Date: 27 Oct 2021

AVAILABILITY

Listen to the podcast online [12:42] ^[2]

EXCERPTS

New Minister in charge of child care plan

^[3]

Play Segment

12:42

Share Segment

After a major cabinet shuffle, Karina Gould is now the Minister of Families, Children and Social Development. We'll ask her about the new role, and how she hopes to get Ontario to sign to the federal child care plan.

Region: Canada ^[4]

Tags: national child care ^[5]

federal agreement ^[6]

Liberal government ^[7]

Source URL (modified on 27 Oct 2021): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/21/10/new-minister-charge-child-care-plan>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/21/10/new-minister-charge-child-care-plan> [2] https://www.cbc.ca/listen/live-radio/1-100-ottawa-morning/clip/15874695-new-minister-charge-child-care-plan?fbclid=IwAR3lQlQbIkQT6ROxyvliOgzHeFjhHGDyZYwRT4t6jyPxU_Rb2GAzMtiSyYc

[3] https://www.cbc.ca/listen/live-radio/1-100-ottawa-morning/clip/15874695-new-minister-charge-child-care-plan?fbclid=IwAR31MYK0_6vSrECS8-qhRdNue93Xq4-BMnhtjJ14oZ1l_-mmvDcmncqZOK0 [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7864> [5]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/national-child-care> [6] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9148> [7]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/liberal-government>