

Nunavut signs onto child care plan ^[1]

All three territories have now reached $10/day agreement with Ottawa. Ontario remains sole province yet to sign an agreement

Source: CTV News

Format: Video

Publication Date: 24 Jan 2022

AVAILABILITY

Watch online [2:50] ^[2]

EXCERPTS

^[2]

Carolyn Ferns, Ontario Coalition for Better Child Care speaks to CTV News on how Ontario is the lone province yet to sign a child care agreement with the Federal government.

Region: Ontario ^[3]

Tags: universal system ^[4]

Canada-wide agreements ^[5]

Source URL (modified on 26 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/22/01/nunavut-signs-child-care-plan>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/22/01/nunavut-signs-child-care-plan> [2] <https://www.ctvnews.ca/video?clipId=2367941&jwsourc=twi> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9083> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9207>