Please join Child Care Now Saskatchewan's webinar on January 26, 2022 at 7 PM Central Time. The purpose of this webinar is to discuss Saskatchewan's federal-provincial child care agreement in relation to rural child care. For a system of early learning and child care to be truly universal, rural communities must be included. We will hear from front-line ECEs and experts who have worked in and successfully built rural child care centres.

Child Care in Rural Communities

Via zoom on January 26, 2022 at 7:00pm CST
