Excerpted from description:

The AECEO and OCBCC are launching a new campaign: A Workforce At Breaking Point - Rising Up. We are sharing the stories of ECEs and raising our voices together about the early learning and child care workforce crisis. It is critical that the issues of facing the child care workforce are addressed in the federal-provincial funding agreement. We are calling for a wage grid and decent work standards as essential elements in a federal-provincial agreement.

Read our Workforce at Breaking Point letter (PDF) with signatures and comments from 1500+ of ECEs and child care workers.
