EXCERPTS

August 26, 2022 – Métis Nation–Saskatchewan (MN–S) is recognizing early learning educators in the province for the work they do to enhance Métis culture in their programs.

This is the first year for the MN–S Métis Early Childhood Educator (ECE) Recognition Program. Twelve Métis citizens have been selected for their exemplary work:

Lucille Pelly – Cumberland House	Samantha Mills – Saskatoon
Anita Uhl –	Jeanette McKay – Green Lake
Kathleen Murray – Meadow Lake	Kirsten Belliveau – Nipawin
Danielle King – Meadow Lake	Darcie King – Meadow Lake
Karlie Harris – Prince Albert	Brittany Corrigan – Île-à-la-Crosse
Adrienne Reinson – Regina	Ranelle Roy – Île-à-la-Crosse

Congratulations to these individuals for going above and beyond to enhance Métis culture and tradition within their child care programs. MN–S celebrates this year’s recipients.
