

Making space: 2023 roadmap on early learning & childcare ^[1]

Author: The Jimmy Pratt Foundation

Format: Article

Publication Date: 6 Jul 2023

AVAILABILITY

Access online ^[2]

Access online [PDF] ^[3]

The Jimmy Pratt Foundation released its fourth discussion paper on the early years in Newfoundland and Labrador. “Making Space: 2023 Roadmap on Early Learning and Childcare” proposes 5 pathways supported by researchers and advocates that would help the government create more regulated spaces in a matter of months. This document focuses on 5 priority areas: Retaining the ECE workforce, building the public childcare system, introducing Junior Kindergarten, and developing targeted strategies to increase rural and Indigenous childcare spots.

Related link: N.L. parents signing up for daycare spots before babies are born ^[4]

Region: Newfoundland ^[5]

Tags: workforce strategy ^[6]

public management ^[7]

Indigenous child care ^[8]

child care desert ^[9]

kindergarten ^[10]

Source URL (modified on 11 Mar 2024): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/23/07/making-space-2023-roadmap-early-learning-childcare>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/23/07/making-space-2023-roadmap-early-learning-childcare> ^[2]

<https://jimmyprattfoundation.ca/elcc-roadmap-making-space/> ^[3] <https://jimmyprattfoundation.ca/wp-content/uploads/2023/07/JPF-Roadmap-2023.pdf> ^[4]

<https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/23/07/nl-parents-signing-daycare-spots-babies-are-born-province-filled> ^[5]

<https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7851> ^[6] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9283> ^[7] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/8166>

^[8] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9100> ^[9] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9243> ^[10]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/kindergarten>