Summary

In the latest publication from the OCBCC & AECEO's Policy Brief series, Dr. Gordon Cleveland outlines what a new Ontario child care funding formula should do in order to be successful. It is anticipated that Ontario will release and implement a new child care funding formula in 2024-2025. This brief summarizes what elements should be considered, what options exist, and how to evaluate the efficacy of any new Ontario funding proposal. This brief will help inform the community's evaluative processes, feedback and further refinements to Ontario's forthcoming funding approach.
