Excerpt

There is a new voice in the fight for affordable childcare in Ontario. Families who say they've experienced firsthand how the $10/day child care plan can be life changing and so they want it expanded so every child has access to it.

You can't actually work full time and care for your children full time and deal with like the stressors of not knowing where your kids going to be every day.

Parents for child care attended Quee's Park to bring a message to decision makers.

We need a commitment to a wage grid that ensures fair wages across the board. We need a commitment to a real plan that will create more spaces.
