

Closing nursery warns of 'childcare crisis' ^[1]

Author: Thake, Simon

Source: BBC

Format: Article

Publication Date: 13 Feb 2025

AVAILABILITY

Access online ^[2]

Excerpt

A Sheffield nursery is to close after 50 years in business as staff say they cannot afford to keep it open.

Hunter's Bar Playschool, which will shut its doors permanently on Thursday, offers early years provision for children aged between two and five and is a registered charity.

Emily Baughan, parents committee chair, said: "The government offers children 30 free hours, but the rate they pay us doesn't cover rent, staffing costs, heating, so we are one of a number of settings to go out of business since the pandemic."

...

Related link: England is one of the worst countries in Europe for access to childcare ^[3]

Region: Europe ^[4]

Tags: child care crisis ^[5]

closures ^[6]

Source URL (modified on 14 Feb 2025): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/25/02/closing-nursery-warns-childcare-crisis>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/25/02/closing-nursery-warns-childcare-crisis> ^[2]

<https://www.bbc.com/news/articles/cgmyrn4r7vzo> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/24/09/england-one-worst-countries-europe-access-childcare> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/region/europe> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/child-care-crisis> [6]

<https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9036>