Excerpts

The City of Toronto announced Friday that, should the union representing the city's 27,000 inside workers decide to strike, several family services will close, including 39 Toronto-run child care and early learning centres.

In the event that happens, the city says refunds will be issued for any paid recreation programs and clients will not be charged for each day the city-run child-care centres remain closed.

...

The official strike action deadline is March 8 at 12:01 a.m.
