

Schools as Family & Community Resources^[1]

Event Website: Link to website ^[2]

Contact name: The Bush Center

Contact phone: 203-432-9944

Region: United States ^[3]

Details

Components of the School of the 21st Century. The school of the 21st Century (21C), also called the Family Resource Center, is a model for school-based child care and family support services. Special focus on: - Breakthrough Research on Child Development - New Uses for Technology - Funding Opportunities - Family Involvement - Assessing Program Quality

Source URL (modified on 7 Aug 2020): <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/01/09/schools-family-community-resources>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/01/09/schools-family-community-resources> [2] <https://medicine.yale.edu/childstudy/zigler/21c/> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7865>