Shelley Martel, NDP Children's Issues Critic, invites you to attend three panel discussions which focus on the challenges/opportunities involved in implementing full-day Senior and Junior Kindergarten, and a universal child care system like Quebec's, here in Ontario.

Event covers three days:

1) HOW WOULD FULL-DAY JUNIOR AND SENIOR KINDERGARTEN SUPPORT EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT?

DATE & TIME: Wednesday, May 23, 2001 -- 10:30 - 12:30

LOCATION: Queen's Park, committee room 2

DESCRIPTION: A panel discussion featuring education experts and a member of the Conservative government's Education Improvement Commission

2) HOW DID QUEBEC MANAGE TO BRING IN THE $5 A DAY CHILD CARE SYSTEM?

DATE & TIME: Monday, May 28, 2001 -- 10:00 - 12:00

LOCATION: Queen's Park, committee room 2

DESCRIPTION: A panel discussion featuring experts from Quebec

3) WHAT ARE THE CHALLENGES TO BRING QUEBEC'S CHILD CARE SYSTEM TO ONTARIO?

DATE & TIME: Monday, June 4, 2001 -- 10:00 - 12:00

LOCATION: Queen's Park, committee room 2

DESCRIPTION: A panel discussion featuring Ontario child care and early years experts
