Details

Rural Voices presents a symposium to celebrate the progress of communities across Canada in providing services and supports for children and their parents living in the rural communities.

Learn ways to get involved locally, provincially and Federally to improve rural early learning and care services and supports across Canada.

Come spend some quality professional development time in Saskatoon. Learn new child care skills, develop community capacity building skills as well as looking globally at the future of rural people.

Skill building workshops include:

- Kerry McCuaig "Working with the media"
- Sue Delanoy & Maryann Bird "Making a difference"
- Carol Gott "Proposal writing"
- Kerry McCuaig "Winning the argument" and much more.
