Details
The Ontario Coalition for Better Child Care, CUPE and labour partners are gearing up for the third annual child care worker and early childhood educator appreciation day to celebrate and recognize the contribution of child care workers. This is a an opportunity to raise awareness about the valuable role and contributions of child care workers in the lives of children, their families and the broader community. It's also a time to talk about the importance of regulated, high quality child care. For more information please contact the Ontario Coalition for Better Child Care
