

Beyond 2001: Child care for Australia [AU] ^[1]

Author: Ministry for Family and Community Services

Source: Government of Australia, Ministry for Family and Community Services

Format: government document

Publication Date: 28 Sep 2001

AVAILABILITY

- Complete press release ^[2]

Excerpt of press release:

New report from the Australian government calls for a national vision and a framework to improve early childhood services. The Minister for Family and Community Services states that "the Federal government has to take a lead in early childhood policy so that we get a more organised system" and "accepts this fundamental responsibility".

Region: Australia and New Zealand ^[3]

Tags: federalism ^[4]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/01/10/beyond-2001-child-care-australia-au>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/01/10/beyond-2001-child-care-australia-au> ^[2]

<http://www.facs.gov.au/internet/minfacs.nsf/2b0cec5b0d72d933ca2569e700143ed7/05582f308db8e520ca256ad90017345f?OpenDocument> ^[3]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/region/australia-and-new-zealand> ^[4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/federalism>