

Building Bridges: A resource and training guide for Early Childhood Educators working with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transsexual and transgendered families ^[1]

Author: Janmohamed, Zeenat & Campbell, Ryan

Source: Ontario Coalition for Better Child Care

Format: Report

Publication Date: 1 Dec 2009

AVAILABILITY

Full document in pdf ^[2]

Description:

Building Bridges is an attempt to ensure that early childhood environments are free of discrimination and that they promote respect and value for all family backgrounds. The project will develop practical and concrete training, resources and education materials for the child care environment.

The Building Bridges Handbook has been developed in order to begin the discussion and understanding of what lesbian, gay, bisexual, transsexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) families need in early childhood environments.

Region: Canada ^[3]

Tags: diversity ^[4]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/06/12/building-bridges-resource-and-training-guide-early>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/06/12/building-bridges-resource-and-training-guide-early> ^[2]

<http://www.oise.utoronto.ca/atkinson/UserFiles/File/BuildingBridges.pdf> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7864> [4]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/diversity>