

Preschool Matters April/May 2009 ^[1]

Volume 7, No. 1

Author: National Institute for Early Education Research

Source: National Institute for Early Education Research

Format: Article

Publication Date: 1 May 2009

AVAILABILITY

- Full issue in pdf ^[2]

About Preschool Matters: NIEER spotlights national and international news regarding preschool education in its magazine, Preschool Matters. Each issue features articles on early education - from research studies and public funding to facilities development and teacher training. You can also read interviews with newsmakers (from government leaders and policymakers to researchers and advocates), thought-provoking columns from NIEER Director Steve Barnett, and more. In the latest issue: - Director's Chair: A Race to the Top? By W. Steven Barnett - Can State Pre-K Be Saved? NIEER's Latest Yearbook Shows State Pre-K Continued to Make Gains for 2008. But Without More Federal Aid, They Could Be Short-Lived. - Illinois: Building a Better ECE System Coordinating Resources Through an Early Learning Council Proved Successful - What Leads to Literacy? New Report Identifies Early Childhood Skills That Predict Later Reading, Writing and Spelling Ability. Experts Urge Caution in Applying the Findings. - Interview Senator Ted Kennedy on the Federal Role in Early Care and Education

Tags: outcomes ^[3]

pre-school ^[4]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/09/05/preschool-matters-aprilmay-2009>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/09/05/preschool-matters-aprilmay-2009> [2] <http://nieer.org/psm/pdf/71.pdf> [3]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/outcomes> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/pre-school>