Details

Meeting the Challenge Online is an e-learning course designed to help you prevent and respond to children's challenging behaviours. Pilot-tested by care practitioners from a broad range of settings, it will help you develop effective intervention strategies and enhance children's prosocial behaviour. The course also gives you the opportunity to share your course experience with practitioners from across Canada in an online learning environment.

English Course: Septemeber 11 – November 17 (9 weeks)

French course: September 18 – November 24 (9 weeks)

Registration for fall 2006 courses begins Monday, June 26, 2006! Registration limited to 18 students.
