

Preschool Matters January/February 2010 ^[1]

Volume 8, No. 1

Author: National Institute for Early Education Research

Source: National Institute for Early Education Research

Format: Periodical

Publication Date: 1 Feb 2010

AVAILABILITY

Full issue in pdf ^[2]

About Preschool Matters:

NIEER spotlights national and international news regarding preschool education in its magazine, Preschool Matters. Each issue features articles on early education - from research studies and public funding to facilities development and teacher training. You can also read interviews with newsmakers (from government leaders and policymakers to researchers and advocates), thought-provoking columns from NIEER Director Steve Barnett, and more.

In this issue:

- W. Steven Barnett on avoiding the "poverty trap"
- 2010 Will Be a Tough Year for Pre-K in Many States
- Yet More Evidence: Time to Beef Up Math and Science in Pre-K
- Long-Term Studies Show Lasting Gains from Pre-K
- The Benefits of Investments in Early Development Around the Globe
- What Many Don't Know About Early Literacy
- Preschool's Role in Fighting Childhood Obesity

Region: United States ^[3]

Tags: economics ^[4]

pre-school ^[5]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/10/02/preschool-matters-januaryfebruary-2010>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/10/02/preschool-matters-januaryfebruary-2010> [2] <http://nieer.org/psm/pdf/81.pdf> [3]

<https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7865> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/economics> [5]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/pre-school>