This BRIEFing NOTES are a 4 page summary of More than the sum of the parts: An early childhood development system for Canada ^[2] (Occasional paper 12).

This paper takes the position that a blended, coherent system of early child development programs incorporating child care, early childhood education and family support services should be available in every community. It examines the current array of policies and programs and considers options for developing the proposed system of early child development programs.
