Description:

The Social Economy Centre (OISE/UT) presents the Lunchbox Speakers' Series on March 19th, 2008 12:00-1:30pm, featuring Martha Friendly and Linda White.

Martha Friendly will discuss the state of early childhood education and childcare in Canada within the context of our poor results in the OECD's twenty-nation comparative study.

Linda White will consider how the present and future of early childhood education and childcare is linked to such factors as Canada's welfare state regime and approach to federalism.

This event will also be webcast live on the internet. Please see the Social Economy Centre's website for detailed instructions.
