

Moving forward, hand in hand: Examining the impact that full day kindergarten has had on the early learning and child care system in Ontario ^[1]

Author: Ontario Municipal Social Services Association (OMSSA)

Source: deslibris

Format: Report

Publication Date: 24 May 2012

AVAILABILITY

Free subscription-based access ^[2]

ABSTRACT:

OMSSA has released an examination of the impact that full-day kindergarten has had on Ontario's early learning and child care system. The paper, called Moving Forward, Hand in Hand serves as an update to OMSSA's 2009 paper called Hand in Hand. It makes recommendations to the province on how to ensure that Ontario's early learning and child care system is an equal partner on the education continuum for Ontario's children.

Related link:

Hand in hand - How the province and municipalities can create the best early learning and child care service system in Ontario ^[3]

Region: Ontario ^[4]

Tags: affordability ^[5]

accessibility ^[6]

full-day early learning ^[7]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/12/06/moving-forward-hand-hand-examining-impact-full-day>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/12/06/moving-forward-hand-hand-examining-impact-full-day> ^[2]

<https://www.deslibris.ca/ID/232948> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/09/03/hand-hand-how-province-and-municipalities-can-create-best> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/affordability> [6] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/accessibility> [7] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/8149>