Details

From March 28-30 in Ottawa, the Broadbent Institute will hold its first annual Progress Summit - a high-profile event that will bring together an exciting group of policy experts from across Canada and around the world. Under the theme Paths to a New Prosperity, the Summit will explore fairer and more sustainable approaches to building a prosperous 21st century Canadian economy.

We are delighted that former Australian Prime Minister Julia Gillard and noted academic and author of the acclaimed new book The Entrepreneurial State, Mariana Mazzucato, will be joining us as keynote speakers.

More details to follow.
