

Wage increase for Ontario child care workers ^[1]

Author: various

Source: various

Format: Press release

Publication Date: 23 Apr 2014

On April 22nd, 2014, the Ontario government announced a wage enhancement for Early Childhood Educators and other child care workers. According to the government press release:

To help recruit and retain workers by providing fairer wages, Ontario is proposing an increase of an average of two dollars per hour for early childhood educators and other front-line child care workers. The first increase will be an average of one dollar per hour and will start January 2015.

- Ontario government press release: "Ontario giving kids the best possible start: Province increasing Ontario Child Benefit, improving the quality of child care ^[2]", Apr 22, 2014

News and responses:

- Toronto Star: "Ontario Liberals vow to index child care benefit and boost daycare wages ^[3]", Apr 22, 2014
- CUPE press release: "Wage raise for ECEs and child care workers long-overdue, but province must do more to stabilize child care, keep centres from closing ^[4]", Apr 22, 2014
- AECEO press release: "AECEO responds to wage increase announcement ^[5]", Apr 22, 2014

Region: Ontario ^[6]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/14/04/wage-increase-ontario-child-care-workers>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/14/04/wage-increase-ontario-child-care-workers> ^[2]
<http://news.ontario.ca/mof/en/2014/04/ontario-giving-kids-the-best-possible-start.html> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/14/04/ontario-liberals-vow-index-child-care-benefit-and-boost-daycare-wage> [4] <https://cupe.on.ca/d2652/wage-raise-ec-es-child> [5]
<https://www.aeceo.ca/news/aeceo-responds-wage-increase-announcement.html> [6] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856>