

Accessibility of early childhood education and care: A state of affairs ^[1]

Author: Vandenbroeck, Michel & Lazzarib, Arianna

Source: European Early Childhood Education Research Journal

Format: Article

Publication Date: 1 Jul 2014

AVAILABILITY

Access online [PDF] ^[2]

Abstract:

We analyse both academic literature and practice reports to discover the main causes for unequal accessibility of high quality early childhood care and education (ECEC). In order to understand and to remedy this inequality we need to consider the interplay between elements of governance, of the management of services and elements on the level of parents. From this analysis as well as from reports on successful inclusive practises, we arrive at five quality criteria and make 13 recommendations for policy and practice

Region: International ^[3]

Tags: affordability ^[4]

accessibility ^[5]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/14/10/accessibility-early-childhood-education-and-care-state>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/14/10/accessibility-early-childhood-education-and-care-state> ^[2]

https://www.researchgate.net/publication/263703739_Accessibility_of_early_childhood_education_and_care_A_state_of_affairs ^[3]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/region/international> ^[4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/affordability> ^[5]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/accessibility>