

New website: Moving Child Care Forward Project ^[1]

Format: Report

Publication Date: 29 Oct 2014

The Moving Child Care Forward Project has launched a new website: movingchildcareforward.ca ^[2]

The Moving Child Care Forward Project ^[2], funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada's Connections program, is designed to broaden and deepen debate and understanding of early childhood education and child care (ECEC) policy issues. The project's goals: knowledge mobilization to promote research, inform public and policy dialogue and to develop effective responses to complex policy issues to better serve young children and their families. The Moving Childcare Forward Project ^[2] is a joint initiative of the Childcare Resource and Research Unit, Centre for Work, Families and Well-Being at the University of Guelph, and Susan Prentice, Department of Sociology at the University of Manitoba.

Region: Canada ^[3]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/14/10/new-website-moving-child-care-forward-project>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/14/10/new-website-moving-child-care-forward-project> ^[2]
<https://www.movingchildcareforward.ca/> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7864>