Details

The 65th OMSSA Learning Symposium, "Leadership in Human Services: Cultivating Innovation, Strengthening Communities" will bring together municipal service managers, provincial government staff, community and sector partners to share best practices and provide innovative examples of leadership in human services in Ontario.

This year's OMSSA Learning Symposium will feature consultations on 3 key provincial initiatives. As leaders in your communities and experts in your fields bring your ideas and recommendations to directly influence provincial policy.

SAMS Transition Implementation Plan: the Ministry of Community and Social Services is moving forward on PricewaterhouseCoopers recommendations on SAMS transition implementation. Meet with the Program Manager and transition team for input on some first steps.

Community Hubs Consultations: meet with Karen Pitre, Special Advisor to the Premier on Community Hubs and provincial representatives and provide recommendations to ensure the success of the provincial community hub initiative.

Long Term Affordable Housing Strategy Renewal: the Ministry of Municipal Affairs wants your input on moving Ontario's Long Term Affordable Housing Strategy forward. Share your experience, ideas and recommendations on what is needed to get more people housed and sustain the system.
