

Childcare workers protesting for increased pay^[1]

Author: Casey, Ruairi

Source: Newstalk 106-108fm

Format: Article

Publication Date: 6 Jun 2015

AVAILABILITY

Read online^[2]

EXCERPTS

The Association of Childhood Professionals says the average wage for childcare workers is €10 per hour.

Early childhood workers are calling for increased wages and funding for the sector.

Childcare workers are this afternoon holding protest marches and demonstrations around the country.

The rallies will be held at Children's Minister's constituency office in Swords in Dublin, the City Library in Cork, and the Sligo Town Hall.

The Association of Childhood Professionals says the average wage for childcare workers is €10 per hour.

Chairperson of the ACP Marian Quinn, says creche and Montessori owners often have no choice but to reduce the amount they pay employees:

-reprinted from Newstalk 106-108fm

Region: Europe^[3]

Tags: pay equity^[4]

workforce^[5]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/15/06/childcare-workers-protesting-increased-pay>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/15/06/childcare-workers-protesting-increased-pay>^[2]

<https://www.newstalk.com/news/childcare-workers-protesting-for-increased-pay-654451> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/region/europe> [4]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/pay-equity> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/workforce>