

Sign a pledge to support quality child care that all families can afford^[1]

Author: The National Union of Public and General Employees

Source: The National Union of Public and General Employees

Format: Article

Publication Date: 10 Aug 2015

AVAILABILITY

Read online^[2]

EXCERPTS

The Vote Child Care 2015 campaign is encouraging Canadians to sign a pledge for quality child care that all families can afford and count on. The campaign is holding monthly pledge days until October 2015. The next pledge day is August 12th, 2015, which is International Day of Youth.

Sign the pledge and make a commitment to support child care

By signing the pledge for quality child care, the campaign is asking Canadians to make a commitment to:

1. Vote on Election Day
2. Support a candidate that supports quality child care that all families can afford and count on.

Vote Child Care 2015 campaign

The Vote Child Care 2015 campaign is an initiative of the Child Care Advocacy Association of Canada (CCAAC), a non-partisan, non-profit organization with representatives from across Canada dedicated to promoting a universal, publicly funded, inclusive, quality, and non-profit child care system in Canada.

-reprinted from The National Union of Public and General Employees

Region: Canada^[3]

Tags: federal election^[4]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/15/08/sign-pledge-support-quality-child-care-all-families-can-afford>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/15/08/sign-pledge-support-quality-child-care-all-families-can-afford> [2]

<https://nupge.ca/content/12420/sign-pledge-support-quality-child-care-all-families-can-afford> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7864> [4]

<https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/federal-election>