

Talk it Up for Child Care^[1]

13 Sep 2015 - 12:00am to 20 Sep 2015 - 12:00am

Region: Canada^[2]

Details

September 13th - 20th communities across Canada will Talk it Up for Child Care^[3].

We want to keep child care on the federal election agenda. Get involved and help push for a national plan for quality affordable child care in this federal election.

The Talk it Up Week of Action will centre around the I Vote Child Care Pledge^[4] and features a number of Canada-wide events such as, Grandparent's Day on September 13th, Art Attack day on September 16th to coincide with a #VoteChildCare2015 Twitter Storm on the same day.

Local child care supporters across the country are busy organizing exciting events during the week of action such as: Vote Child Care canvassing & training sessions, setting up Vote Child Care tables at local farmer's markets, pop-up voting stations and all candidates' debates.

Visit votechildcare.ca^[5] to find out how you can get involved!

Tags: election^[6]

Source URL (modified on 7 Aug 2020): <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/15/09/talk-it-child-care>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/15/09/talk-it-child-care> [2] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7864> [3] <https://ccaac.ca/talk-it-up-for-child-care/> [4] <https://ccaac.ca/pledge/> [5] <https://ccaac.ca/vote-child-care-2015/> [6] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/election>