

A guide to the national parties' child care platforms in the 2015 federal election ^[1]

Author: Vote Child Care 2015

Source: Vote Child Care 2015

Format: Fact sheet

Publication Date: 9 Sep 2015

AVAILABILITY

Full guide in English (pdf) ^[2]

Full guide in French (pdf) ^[3]

This summary of the national parties' platforms on early childhood education and care and related family policy is intended as a guide to help Canadians make informed voting choices. The information is taken from online written sources publicly available at the time of writing and will be modified accordingly if additional information becomes available.

As a non-partisan multi-sectoral campaign with an interest in ensuring that child care is an issue on the political agenda, Vote Child Care 2015 ^[4] neither endorses nor supports any political party but encourages all parties to share our vision of a national child care program.

Region: Canada ^[5]

Tags: election ^[6]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/15/09/guide-national-parties%E2%80%99-child-care-platforms-2015-federal>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/15/09/guide-national-parties%E2%80%99-child-care-platforms-2015-federal> [2] <https://ccaacacpsge.files.wordpress.com/2015/06/vcc-election-guide-sept-9-2015.pdf> [3] <https://acpsgeccaac.files.wordpress.com/2015/06/vcc-fr-election-guide-sept-9.pdf> [4] <https://ccaac.ca/party-positions/> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7864> [6] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/election>