Excerpts from Vision Green

Green Party MPs will:

- Restore and revamp 2005 agreements reached among the federal government and each province/territory to achieve a universally accessible child care program in Canada;
- Provide federal transfers to provinces directed to public and non-profit providers
- Provincial governments should establish standards for quality of child care services and fees
- Specifically ensure that Canada's universal child care program provides workplace child care spaces wherever possible;
- Abolish income splitting and the Universal Child Care Benefit
- Establish a National Children's Commissioner
