

A new vision for FRPs in Ontario: Early Years Centres <sup>[1]</sup>

Article appeared in Winter 2002 issue of Play and Parenting Connections (FRP Canada's quarterly newsletter)

Author: Moody, Louise

Source: FRP Canada <sup>[2]</sup>

Format: Periodical

Publication Date: 1 Dec 2002

AVAILABILITY

- Full article in html <sup>[3]</sup>

"Have you ever heard the expression 'Be careful what you wish for; it might come true'? Many family resource programs began to feel that their dreams of new funding might be turning into nightmares as the paradigm shifts and their main funding source becomes uncertain. What happened?"

This article provides insight and commentary on how family resource programs have been affected by the Ontario Early Years Centres.

Region: Ontario <sup>[4]</sup>

Tags: family resource programs <sup>[5]</sup>

---

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/02/09/new-vision-frps-ontario-early-years-centres>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/02/09/new-vision-frps-ontario-early-years-centres> [2] <http://www.frp.ca/> [3] http://www.frp.ca/g\_Article.asp?ArticleID=59 [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/family-resource-programs>