

Sheila Block breaks down the gender wage gap^[1]

Author: Woodard, Dave

Source: Zoomer Radio

Publication Date: 19 Apr 2016

AVAILABILITY

Listen to podcast online^[2]

Sheila Block breaks down the gender wage gap

Tuesday is Ontario's Equal Pay Day – a day to shed light on the income wage gap between men and women. Women currently make 70.6 cents on every dollar a man makes. Sheila Block – a senior economist with the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives – breaks down a new study showing how the wage gap affects all women along the income ladder.

Click here^[2] to listen.

Region: Ontario^[3]

Tags: gender^[4]

Women^[5]

wages^[6]

Source URL (modified on 27 Jan 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/16/04/sheila-block-breaks-down-gender-wage-gap>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/16/04/sheila-block-breaks-down-gender-wage-gap> [2] <http://www.zoomerradio.ca/show/fight-back-on-zoomer-radio/sheila-block-april-19/> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/gender> [5] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/women> [6] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/wages>