

Speak up! Finding your voice as a child care professional ^[1]

6 Oct 2016 - 5:30pm to 7:00pm

Event Website: Event Facebook page ^[2]

Region: Ontario ^[3]

Details

Speak up! Finding your voice as a child care professional

A FREE Professional Development Workshop for ECE students and professionals.

No registration required, on a first come, first serve basis

Come early (5:30) for the pre-engagements. The panel starts at 6pm!

This workshop will:

- Present the current state of ECE work and highlight the issues that are facing the child care sector
- Set the stage for students and professionals to find their voice and speak up for their rights and needs as ECE workers
- Share personal stories from our panelist on what sparked their interest and steps to how they became involved
- Provide audience with the resources and tools to engage in advocacy work

An event organized by GBC students, in collaboration with RSCAA, AECEO, OCBCC and CRRU.

Date: Thursday October 6, 2016

Time: 5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

Location: Ryerson Campus 80 Gould St Rogers Communications Centre Room: RCC 204

Source URL (modified on 7 Aug 2020): <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/16/10/speak-finding-your-voice-child-care-professional>
Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/events/16/10/speak-finding-your-voice-child-care-professional> [2]

<https://www.facebook.com/events/620197144816712/> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/7856>