

Re-opening child care centres

Child care centres across Canada are beginning to re-open and details of opening provisions across provincial and territorial jurisdictions are being released. This table provides an overview of important features such as modified ratios, group sizes, physical space provisions, and additional physical distancing measures. Please note that this is not a fully comprehensive table, as the jurisdictions have provided additional provisions to service providers; the links to further P/T details have been provided in this table where possible.
