

Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario

Platform

The Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario has yet to release their 2022 election platform. However, the party tabled a budget on April 28th 2022 that effectively doubles as its platform for the upcoming election.

2022 Ontario Budget: Ontario's Plan to Build ^[1]
Government of Ontario, 28 April 2022

Community responses

Ontario budget 2022 misses the mark on what the pandemic taught Ontarians, the value of nonprofits ^[2]

Ontario Nonprofit Network, 29 April 2022

In their analysis of Ontario's 2022 provincial budget, the Ontario Nonprofit Network expresses their disappointment with the Ford government's lack of commitment to expanding non-profit child care services, and investing in wages of the child care workforce. The ONN statement also reinforces that increasing tax credit for families will not build spaces nor address the growing child care workforce shortage.

Ontario budget 2022: Child care plan can't work without a workforce strategy. ECEs and child care workers are worth more than Ford's budget ^[3]

Canadian Union of Public Employees, 29 April 2022

Endorsements

This section will be updated as information become available.

Media

This section will be updated as information become available.

Thu, 05/05/2022

Tags:

Ontario election 2022 ^[4]

politics ^[5]

Source URL (modified on 5 May 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/issue-files/ontario-provincial-election-2022/progressive-conservative-party-ontario>

Links

^[1] <https://budget.ontario.ca/2022/index.html> ^[2] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/research-policy-practice/22/05/ontario-budget-2022> ^[3]

<https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/22/05/ontario-budget-2022-child-care-plan-can%E2%80%99t-work-without-workforce> ^[4]

<https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9251> ^[5] <https://childcarecanada.org/category/tags/politics>