

General overview

Media coverage

Childcare: The forgotten election issue? ^[1]

TVO Today, 31 May 2022

Child care affordability leads to questions of space creation in Ontario election ^[2]

The Star, 22 May 2022

Niagara Falls riding candidates share how they would fix child-care shortage problems ^[3]

St. Catherine Standard, 19 May 2022

Wed, 06/01/2022

Tags:

Ontario election 2022 ^[4]

Source URL (modified on 1 Jun 2022): <https://childcarecanada.org/resources/issue-files/ontario-provincial-election-2022/general-overview>

Links

[1] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/22/06/childcare-forgotten-election-issue> [2] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/22/05/child-care-affordability-leads-questions-space-creation-ontario> [3] <https://childcarecanada.org/documents/child-care-news/22/05/niagara-falls-riding-candidates-share-how-they-would-fix-child-care> [4] <https://childcarecanada.org/taxonomy/term/9251>