

Starting Strong II (2006)

On September 19, 2006, the OECD released the final summary report from the Thematic Review of Early Childhood Education and Care. Starting Strong II outlines progress made by the 20 participating countries in responding to key aspects of successful ECEC policy outlined in Starting Strong (2001). The report offers many examples of new policy initiatives adopted in the ECEC field as well as comparative data that puts each country in the international context. In their conclusions, the authors identify ten policy areas for further critical attention from governments.
